"It always gives me great pleasure to return to this biennial conference, and today is no exception. This international gathering is hosted by Universiti Sultan Azlan Shah, named in honour of my father, Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah (Marhum Al-Maghfur-Lah). Indeed, perhaps that is why it feels almost like a homecoming. I have returned to this conference over the years, to speak on topics from "Global Peace" to "Our Future World" and, most recently, on "Sharing Our Humanity". It is, without fail, an exciting, energizing occasion: a conference that tackles the very biggest questions of our present moment, bringing together great minds to pursue solutions for the future."

MENTERI BESAR OF PERAK DARUL RIDZUAN

Assalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.

Salam Sejahtera, Salam Malaysia Madani and Salam Perak Sejahtera 2030.

It is with great honour and profound appreciation that I would like to welcome to all distinguished scholars, practitioners, policymakers, and participants to the 8th World Conference on Islamic Thought and Civilization (WCIT2026). This esteemed gathering serves as a vital platform for intellectual engagement and meaningful dialogue, hence advancing the role of Islamic thought in addressing contemporary global challenges. On behalf of the Perak State Government, we extend our deepest gratitude and highest appreciation to His Royal Highness Paduka Seri Sultan Perak Darul Ridzuan, Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah ibni Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-lah, for the gracious Royal Patronage of this conference series.

The theme of this year's conference, "Where Everyone Matters: Pride and Unity in Islam," resonates deeply with the universal values found in Islamic teachings. It emphasises the values of inclusivity, social justice, and collective responsibility, reminding us that unity, diversity and mutual respect form the Ummah's strength. At a time when the world faces complex socio-political and economic uncertainties, this theme is both timely and necessary.

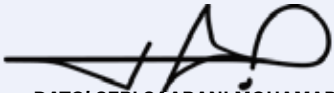

The discourse fosters trust, transparency, and ethical leadership. Equally, the need for sustainable economic and educational practices grounded in Islamic principles that promote equity and equality, innovation, and shared prosperity across communities to uplift individuals and transform societies. Moreover, it calls for a renewed commitment to stewardship (khalifah) of the Earth, ensuring that development does not come at the expense of faith, ecological balance and future generations.

I believe that WCIT2026 will generate impactful insights, foster interdisciplinary collaboration, and contribute actionable solutions rooted in Islamic values. May this conference inspire us further to building a just, harmonious, and resilient global community. On that note, I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate the Vice-Chancellor of Sultan Azlan Shah University, Prof. Dato' Dr. Wan Sabri bin Wan Yusof, and the WCIT2026 Committee for organizing the conference and etching another milestone in its series.

I wish everyone a great conference and enjoy your time here in Perak Darul Ridzuan.

Thank you.

CONFERENCE CHAIR

Assalamua'laikum warahmatuLlahi wabarakatuh.

It is my great pleasure to welcome distinguished leaders, scholars, researchers, policymakers, professionals, and participants from around the world to the 8th World Conference on Islamic Thought and Civilization (WCIT2026). On behalf of Universiti Sultan Azlan Shah (USAS), I wish to express our deepest gratitude to DYMM Paduka Seri Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah ibni Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-lah for His Royal Highness's unwavering patronage of the WCIT series since its inception. We convene at a pivotal moment in history. The world today is marked by geopolitical uncertainty, prolonged conflicts, humanitarian crises, economic volatility, and shifting global power dynamics. These developments remind us that history often repeats itself, compelling us not only to observe these changes but also to respond with wisdom, resilience, and collective responsibility.

Against this backdrop, WCIT2026 embraces the theme "Where Everyone Matters: Pride & Unity in Islam." It is a call for the Muslim Ummah to reflect on its present condition, strengthen its internal resilience, and reaffirm its shared purpose. The challenges confronting the Muslim World cannot be resolved solely through external intervention; they require sincere self-reflection, renewed commitment, and meaningful cooperation. Recent global events have demonstrated that lasting security and progress cannot depend entirely on the interests or promises of others. The Muslim World must strengthen its own capacities while remaining an active and constructive partner in the international community. Our greatest strength lies in our shared faith, values, and civilisational heritage. While we celebrate our diversity, we must not allow superficial differences to overshadow the principles that unite us; justice, compassion, knowledge, integrity, and mutual respect.

The five sub-themes of WCIT2026 - Good Governance and Political Stability; The Economy: Development and Cooperation; Education Matters: Social Empowerment; Public Health: Hygiene and Sanitation; and National Integrity and Security, provide practical avenues for translating these ideals into action. The conference offers a platform for scholars, experts, and practitioners to exchange ideas, share best practices, and develop solutions that contribute to the advancement of the Muslim World and humanity.

On behalf of the Organising Committee, I extend my sincere appreciation to YAB Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim, Prime Minister of Malaysia; YB Dato' Seri Diraja Dr. Zambry Abd Kadir, Minister of Higher Education; YAB Dato' Seri Saarani Mohamad, Menteri Besar of Perak; the Government of the State of Perak, our sponsors, strategic partners, distinguished speakers, presenters, volunteers, and organising committee for their invaluable support. May WCIT2026 inspire lasting partnerships, meaningful dialogue, and practical initiatives that contribute to a more united, peaceful, and prosperous future for the Muslim World and humanity.

Thank you.

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR

Assalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh

On behalf of the Organising Committee of the 8th World Conference on Islamic Thought and Civilization (WCIT2026), I wish to express our deepest appreciation to DYMM Paduka Seri Sultan Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah ibni Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-lah, the Royal Patron of WCIT series, for His Royal Highness's unwavering patronage and support. I also extend my sincere gratitude to YAB Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim, Prime Minister of Malaysia; YB Dato' Seri Diraja Dr. Zambry Abd Kadir, Minister of Higher Education; YAB Dato' Seri Saarani Mohamad, Menteri Besar of Perak; and the Perak State Government for their continued support in making this conference possible.

It is my great pleasure to welcome distinguished speakers, researchers, policymakers, and participants from around the world to WCIT2026. Your presence reflects our shared commitment to advancing meaningful dialogue and practical collaboration in addressing the pressing challenges facing the Muslim World and the global community. Since its establishment, WCIT has grown into a respected international platform that ensures knowledge extends beyond academia to benefit society. Guided by the Islamic principle of Rahmatan lil 'Alamin (Mercy to All Mankind), we believe that knowledge should transcend geographical, cultural, and disciplinary boundaries in pursuit of the common good.

This commitment begins within our own communities. At Universiti Sultan Azlan Shah (USAS), community engagement is not viewed as an adjunct to our academic mission but as an integral component of it. We are particularly committed to promoting inclusive development by ensuring that no community is left behind. In this regard, our collaboration with the Department of Orang Asli Development (JAKOA) reflects our determination to empower indigenous communities through education, capacity building, and sustainable development initiatives.

WCIT2026 also signifies USAS's aspiration to strengthen its presence beyond the local sphere and contribute meaningfully at the regional and international levels through impactful research, strategic partnerships, and thought leadership. As a university under the Perak State Government, we are honoured to support the aspirations of Perak Sejahtera 2030 by promoting sustainable development, social harmony, and inclusive prosperity.

I would also like to record my sincere appreciation to our sponsors, strategic partners, supporting agencies, distinguished speakers, presenters, volunteers, and members of the Organising Committee whose dedication has made WCIT2026 a reality. May this conference inspire fruitful discussions, lasting collaborations, and practical initiatives that strengthen our communities and contribute to a more peaceful, inclusive, and prosperous future.

Thank you.

About

ABOUT USAS

Universiti Sultan Azlan Shah (USAS) is located at Bukit Chandan, in the Royal Town of Perak. The institution was the brainchild of the late Sultan of Perak, Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-lah in 1986. It was later realized in 1999 at a temporary campus complex located in Ipoh under the name Kolej Islam Darul Ridzuan (KISDAR).

It was inaugurated by His Royal Highness Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-lah on October 16, 1999. The institution was established under the Perak State Government Enactment Bil. 3 Year 2000. The Enactment was tabled and passed by the Dewan Undangan Negeri which later received the royal assent on March 6, 2002.

On the February 8, 2006, the State Government approved the construction of a permanent campus for KISDAR at Bukit Chandan on a piece of land donated by the then Acting Sultan of Perak Raja Dr. Nazrin Shah. The campus which cost almost RM66 million, was completed in 2008. On July 16, 2009; His Royal Highness Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-lah officiated the opening of the KISDAR campus at Bukit Chandan, which was later known as Kolej Universiti Islam Sultan Azlan Shah (KUISAS) after it was elevated to college university status in 2013.

KUISAS was later awarded the full-fledged university status on June 14, 2016; establishing itself as Universiti Sultan Azlan Shah (USAS).

USAS currently offers 50 programmes which cater for both local and international students alike. The programmes at the level of Foundation, Diploma, Bachelor's Degree, Masters, and PhD are offered by three faculties, namely the Faculty of Management and Information Technology, the Faculty of Islamic Studies and Social Sciences, and the Centre for Languages and Foundation Studies. All the programmes at USAS are accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA) and listed under Public Services Department of Malaysia.

ABOUT WCIT

Since its inception in 2012, the World Conference on Islamic Thought and Civilization (WCIT) series, organized by Universiti Sultan Azlan Shah (USAS), has served as a distinguished international platform for intellectual engagement, policy dialogue, and scholarly collaboration on issues affecting the Muslim World and global civilization. Recognized as one of the State of Perak's official events, WCIT brings together world leaders, policymakers, academics, intellectuals, professionals, and members of civil society to exchange ideas in a dynamic environment that encourages constructive discourse and practical solutions to contemporary challenges. Beyond being an academic conference, WCIT seeks to bridge scholarship with action by promoting meaningful engagement between the Muslim World and the wider international community. The conference advocates inclusive dialogue, mutual understanding, and collaborative partnerships that contribute to sustainable peace, social development, good governance, and shared human progress.

Starting in 2016, WCIT introduced a series of interconnected themes that collectively examine the evolving role of the Muslim World in shaping the future of global civilization. The Future World (2016) conference explored possible futures in which Muslim societies either lead global development or actively contribute to a collectively envisioned future. Global Peace (2017) shifted attention to the importance of peaceful coexistence, intercultural dialogue, and international cooperation in an increasingly interconnected world. Securing the Future (2018) examined strategies for building resilient societies capable of addressing political, economic, technological, and environmental challenges. Following the global disruptions brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic, Sharing Our Humanity (2022) highlighted compassion, solidarity, and shared responsibility as foundations for rebuilding societies. This was followed by Together We Stand: Muslims and Global Humanity (2024), which reaffirmed the indispensable role of Muslim nations as active partners in fostering global peace, justice, and sustainable development.

Over the years, WCIT has evolved from primarily theoretical and academic discussions towards a stronger emphasis on translating ideas into practical initiatives and impactful actions. The conference continues to encourage the development of policies, partnerships, and community-based programmes that address real-world issues while strengthening cooperation within the Muslim World and beyond. Guided by the belief that humanity's greatest challenges require collective responsibility, WCIT remains committed to advancing Islamic thought, promoting civilizational dialogue, and contributing to a more peaceful, inclusive, and sustainable future for all.

INTRODUCTION

The 8th World Conference on Islamic Thought and Civilization (WCIT2026), carries the theme “Where Everyone Matters: Pride & Unity in Islam.” Building upon previous WCIT series, the conference responds to contemporary geopolitical realities by calling for greater unity, resilience, and cooperation among Muslim nations and the wider global community. It seeks to move beyond theoretical discussions by showcasing practical experiences, successful initiatives, and actionable strategies that can strengthen governance, economic development, education, social empowerment, and international collaboration. WCIT2026 aspires to reaffirm the relevance of the Muslim World as a constructive global partner while encouraging nations to work together with integrity, dignity, and a shared commitment to peace, humanity, and sustainable development.

MAJOR THEME

The main theme of WCIT2026 “Where Everyone Matters: Pride & Unity in Islam,” is chosen to highlight the need for greater unity, inclusivity, and collective responsibility within the Muslim World and beyond. It is to deliberate on the roles of Muslim nations to strengthen governance, education, economic cooperation, and social development while translating ideas into practical action. The theme envisions a resilient, confident, and collaborative Muslim community contributing meaningfully to global peace, sustainable development, and shared humanity.
